Mary Hirose : Your Notebook! Electric Pink before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Your Notebook! Electric Pink:

Think pink! Have you been noticing a lot of pink lately? Maybe as the rosy reds of Christmas fades, and we are gifted with a little more sunshine day by day (hooray) pink comes to mind. Perhaps upcoming Valentine's day is hovering into view. Not that you need an excuse to declare your love for anything and everything! Enjoy this journal/planner, your writing, and sunshine and blessings always.
